

"Our focus remains unchanged -- lowering energy costs, expanding clean energy access and delivering lasting benefits for Nevadans," she said. The EPA'S decision to terminate the program ...

The Solar Energy Industries Association (SEIA) is leading the transformation to a clean energy economy. Learn more at seia

Join jokester Sean White as he interviews Aaron Nichols, research and policy specialist at Exact Solar and creator of "This Week in Solar." Discover Aaron's unique journey from teaching and ...

Aaron became invested in solar energy access as a result of his research on solar energy in developing countries. "When I learned that 80% of energy infrastructure investment in the 21st century will take ...

Congress created the Solar for All program in 2022 as part of the Inflation Reduction Act, directing the EPA to make competitive grants to states and other entities to deploy solar projects in ...

Solar could have lowered low-income Nevadans' energy bills. The state's attorney general filed a lawsuit last week in hopes of recovering a grant terminated by the EPA.

Speakers called on Arizona's congressional delegation to defend these tax credits and ensure continued investment in the state's clean energy future. Arizona State Representative Aaron ...

Community leaders and environmental advocates across Nevada are calling on Gov. Joe Lombardo and the Environmental Protection Agency to restore funding for the Nevada Solar for All ...

It's easy to feel helpless when we look at national news, but it's an illusion. State and local policy is a lot easier to influence than federal policy, and often has a greater impact.

Another day, another big move for the US solar industry as Voltage Energy announces expansion in North Carolina.

Web: <https://www.inalaaccelerator.co.za>