

Explore electric vehicles in Cyprus with our guide to charging stations and available purchase incentives for a greener, cost-effective drive.

Under this new scheme, prospective electric vehicle (EV) buyers can receive a substantial subsidy of up to EUR9,000, making electric cars more accessible and appealing to the public.

The new program will offer grants and incentives for both new and used electric and hybrid vehicles, with the goal of expanding access to electric mobility across more income groups.

Cyprus is preparing to launch a new phase of its electric mobility subsidy programme, expected to be announced before the end of 2025.

The grants range from EUR9,000 for new private-use electric cars to EUR20,000 for vehicles used by people with disabilities and for large families. Additionally, EUR9,000 is available for used ...

This guide explores the current state of electric cars in Cyprus, costs, incentives, charging infrastructure, and benefits, helping potential buyers and businesses make an informed ...

The government hopes the new subsidy plan will accelerate adoption of zero-emission vehicles, help Cyprus meet environmental goals, and support auto dealers facing EU requirements to ...

Announced by Transport, Communications and Works Minister Alexis Vafeades, the initiative is designed to strengthen the adoption of fully electric and hybrid vehicles through state ...

Cyprus has launched the fourth phase of its electric vehicle grant scheme, with applications set to open on December 5 at 9am and close on December 9 at 9am, road transport ...

The Council of Ministers approved a new EUR2.5 million electric vehicle incentive scheme on Wednesday, maintaining existing grant levels of up to EUR9,000 for electric cars and EUR7,500 for ...

Web: <https://www.inalaaccelerator.co.za>