

As solar grows in popularity, more scammers are targeting consumers. Here are three common solar scams to look out for, how to avoid them and how to report solar scams.

Be aware of solar energy scams - everything from scammers pretending to be affiliated with the government or utility company to businesses misrepresenting the cost of improvements, ...

While you are browsing solar power companies, one of them may offer to install a solar panel or solar roof in your home for a small cost or even for free. It's an intentionally misleading...

In this blog post, we'll explore common solar scams and provide tips on how to spot a reputable solar company

Many solar PV systems installed during the 2011 solar boom are reaching a stage where inverters may need replacing. Scammers exploit this by spreading false claims, manipulating ...

Browse and view scams details reported to the BBB. Examine and share scams with others to help protect you from existing schemes.

These scams start with an unexpected phone call, message on social, or even an in-person visit. The so-called official offers you an "energy audit" to reduce your utility costs. Or they might try to sign you ...

Scams are unfortunately common in the solar industry. Learn ...

To avoid getting scammed, you need to know what to look out for and when to walk away. Here's our guide to spotting solar panel scams and finding a great installer.

Solar power may be the energy of the future, but in the present there are lots of solar scammers trying to take your money. Here's how to tell.

Scams are unfortunately common in the solar industry. Learn more about some of the most likely scams you may face when trying to go solar.

Web: <https://www.inalaaccelerator.co.za>